Mr. Key, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Margaret Fisher, and others, report, that they have taken the prayer thereof under their consideration, and find the allegations therein contained to be just and true.

Your committee find, from an examination into the accounts of the said Margaret Fisher, that notwithstanding the very great exertions made by her, and large payments in specie made to the agent and treasurer, there still remains a balance of about two thousand pounds yet due to the state.

Your committee beg leave to refer the house to the account, on an examination of which it will be found, that all the money paid has been in specie, or certificates of specie value, and no part thereof in depreciated paper. The petitioner comes strongly recommended to the honourable house by the respectable inhabitants of Frederick, praying that the legislature will, in the goodness of their bounty, relieve the petitioner from the payment of the balance due by her to the state.

Your committee are therefore of opinion, that this house, actuated by motives of benevolence and humanity, may pass a resolution to discharge the petitioner from any further payment of the debt due by her to the state, or such part thereof as they may think proper, for should they adopt a different conduct, the petitioner, and all her securities, they and their numerous families, will be reduced to beggary and distress.
